

Disagree with proposal to automatically upgrade novice and advanced amateur licenses based on 20 years of operating experience because: (1) no evidence that this in any way advances the hobby; (2) No way to establish "operating experience" within the 20 years//becomes essentially decision based on 20 years of holding the license. Many inactive amateur operators hold valid licenses. This would be an unwarranted gift.